Students in consultation with their advisors and upon prior approval of the Art History Committee, must participate in an activity related to their field of study outside of required course work. This may include, but is not limited to: gallery work, museum or gallery internships, art conservation, archaeological work, or study abroad. This practical experience need not result in credit hours. Further information is available from the Chair of the Art History Committee.

Note: A copy of the Art History Practicum Approval Form must be submitted to the Registrar's office prior to graduation.

Practicum

Electives - as needed to 124 credit hours
